Two other handbooks are published in 2017. They are included here, as they represent significant contributions by WTMC members. Stefan Kuhlmann and Gonzalo Ordóñez-Matamoros are the editors of the Research Handbook on Innovation Governance for Emerging Economies, Edward Elgar. The editors also provide a substantial introduction, entitled 'Introduction: Governance of innovation in emerging countries: Understanding failures and exploring options' (1-36).

The new edition of the STS Handbook is also published in 2017, but it is included here to demonstrate the substantial contributions made by current and former members of WTMC to what will almost certainly become a standard reference for years to come. Seven of the 36 chapters (19%) include (past & present) WTMC members as co-authors (WTMC names in bold, chapters listed in order).
